Please read "Exhibit Policy and Guidelines" for the Somerset County Library System. Your signature on this application indicates that you understand and agree to the procedures outlined therein. Display providers are required to provide contact information for the public so library visitors can get in touch with you directly should they have questions or comments about your work. Please also include a theme/title for the exhibition and a brief description of the exhibit suitable for display and/or publication. If using the Display Case, please do not force panels/doors to open or close. If you need assistance, please see a staff member. All exhibitors are required to sign a liability waiver for insurance purposes.

Please sign and date this application and return it to your branch's designated representative.
